IMPROVEMENTS

The main portion of the subject property was constructed in 1898 as one of the early community halls in Central Saanich. The property has since undergone extensive renovation and updating with the most recent work being completed in 2013. The building has a new electrical service with two 200 amp panels, new furnace, updated plumbing and new roof. The interior finishes have been thoroughly updated to create a modern and bright retail showroom on the main level. The lower level features a full service daycare along with ample storage areas to support the occupants. The rear yard is used by the daycare and landscaped as a playground with accessory buildings.
